

The Salesian Catholic University Center Auxilium – UniSALESIANO, is pleased to invite you to participate, together with its academics, in the 4th C.I.T.E. (International Congress of Technology in Education).

The event, which is online and free, will be held on October 10 and 11, starting at 7:30 pm, broadcast on the website congressounisalesiano.com.br.

As in the first and second edition of C.I.T.E., the event is scheduled to receive thousands of people, including students and professors from UniSALESIANO and other Higher Education Institutions around the world. At the Congress, current trends and demands for the area of Technology in Education will be presented, as well as its future perspectives.
